From the Editors Desk

In a month that we saw the headlines featuring Australians being executed in Bali, riots in America, an horrendous massive earthquake in Nepal, volcanic eruptions in Chile and the centenary commemorations of the Gallipoli invasion, in which Australian & New Zealand troops endured the most horrific losses and conditions, one could not help but take a moment or two to reflect how lucky we are to live in Australia and more to the point in Cue.

Of all the above it was the lead up to and Anzac Day itself which gave one so many reasons to reflect on the sacrifices that all our troops have made in various theatres of war to ensure that we enjoy the way of life we probably tend to take for granted. There were thousands of words written, articles produced, TV Shows in abundance to commemorate the centenary of Australians participation at Gallipoli and sadly other campaigns. The poignant bottom line in all this was that ordinary Australians like you and I were prepared to put their lives on the line for what they believed was our inalienable right to live our lives freely and have to right to make our very own choices as to how we choose to live those lives.

Whilst it is only right that we have a day to focus on these people who made the ultimate sacrifice I think they would feel even more appreciated if we could all give a little more back, firstly to our community, our fellow citizens and finally our country. Australians have a great reputation for volunteering, extending a helping hand but in number of instances this is only when disaster strikes. Why is it when things appear to be running smoothly do we leave it to others to lend a helping hand to those not so fortunate around us. The attitude of many is that "we are alright mate" or they simply do not have the time to offer their services or expertise. We are very very lucky that this was not the prevailing attitude when things got tough for our forbears when in some instances the conflicts were a world away.

It is the very essence of human nature to be protective of our own, find excuses or reasons why we cannot do things but perhaps the very best way we can express our gratitude to our forbears who made the ultimate sacrifice would be to find the time to help another not as lucky as ourselves. As the author Miya Yamanouchi once said :

"We can all make a difference in the lives of others in need, because it is the most simple of gestures that make the most significant of differences."

or perhaps President Barack Obama put it even better when he said

"The best way to not feel hopeless is to get up and do something. Don't wait for good things to happen to you. If you go out and make some good things happen, you will fill the world with hope, you will fill yourself with hope."

What better way for us "To Remember Them"

I had the privilege of attending two A.N.Z.A.C. ceremonies, the first was held by Cue Primary School where the staff and students performed a moving service. The service was enhanced by Graham Morphett playing last post and the rouse. The following morning I conducted the dawn service and was very pleased to see so many people. My thanks to all the miners for taking time out of their busy schedules to come together with the local community to pay respect to all who have served our country in time of conflict.

Once again the service was lifted by Graham Morphett's bugle playing and by Jenny Bell playing the bagpipes at the conclusion. My thanks also to Sgt Nick Wilson for attending to the flag and to everyone who laid flowers, particularly to Ron Scott Representing returned servicemen and women, and to Sassy White who laid a wreath on behalf of all young people. Lastly my thanks to everyone concerned with the arrangements and of course cooking the breakfast!

Sandwiched between these events the stage play 'Black Diggers' was broadcast by West Link and on view at the Town Hall. The play highlighted the attitude of mainstream Australia toward Aboriginal soldiers who served in both WW1 and WW2. The aboriginal soldiers were fully accepted as "mates" and comrades in arms whilst at the front but were shunned the moment they walked off the returning boats. The play was "heavy" and confronting as it exposed a dichotomy between the spirit of A.N.Z.A.C. and the prejudice displayed by many in our community.

I am pleased to note that despite the recent heavy rains B.N.M. have been able to restore the road from Cue to the processing plant, to a functional state, and are now shifting sands there. I understand the first pour is imminent and hope it will be the first of many!

Regards,

Roger

A NOTE FROM THE CEO

In April we certainly received our fair share of rain which has caused damage to some of our recent flood repairs caused by a previous flood event and new damage to sections of our road network. An assessment of the damage has been undertaken and we now wait for approval from Main Roads to carry out the work, unfortunately we will have to go back to tender for the work as this is a requirement of the State and Federal Governments.

BNM group have commenced carting material from the 'Battery Sands' out to Tuckabianna. Due to the condition of Wondinong Road and the fact that they need material to commence operations BNM has undertaken to carry out the repairs at their cost and have also committed to rebuilding this portion of the road to a standard set by our engineers.

I can now confirm that we have advised WA Country Arts that we will present the 'WW1 Diaries'. A date for the show will be set for some time in either August or September.

The 100th anniversary of the Gallipoli landings was commemorated on Saturday 25th April, ANZAC day. Despite a chilly and windy morning the Dawn Service was extremely well attended. Special thanks goes to Jenny Bell, Ronald Scott, Graham Morphett and Sgt Nick Wilson who all participated in the service. Thanks also go to Murchison Traders, Bell & Co, Murchison Club Hotel and BP Cue Roadhouse for providing and / or donating items for the breakfast held after the service.

Cue Parliament was held in Cue on the 1st of May 2015. Although this meeting is a WALGA Zone meeting there are many presenters from across the various government instrumentalities. This provides an insight into regional issues and also provides councillors and staff with the opportunity to network.

It is confirmed that the Shire has received $86,000 in funding from the Department of Sport and Recreation to undertake repairs / modifications to the existing water park. A contractor has been appointed to carry out the work and they have already commenced work with a new pumping facility being constructed off site.

The first of our new signs has been installed at the intersection of Dalgarranga Road and Beringarra Road, there should be no issue whatsoever with tourists not being able to find their way as the signs are very large and are very informative. There are a further four intersections that will have signs erected as part of the Community Chest funding program administered by the Mid-West Development Commission.

Work has commenced on preparing the 2015 / 16 Budget, this is quite a long process given the complexities and legislative requirements. We have recently undertaken an audit of our OH&S responsibilities, the audit found we have many areas in which to improve on; however many of these can be readily remediated and work has commenced on addressing these deficiencies.

Staff have generally been busy around town trying to get on top of the weeds that have sprung up due to the rain. I am pleased to say that good progress has been made and the town is looking very neat and tidy.

Seafood in Chardonnay Jelly

Ingredients

- 3 gelatine leaves*
- 200ml chardonnay
- 1 1/2 tablespoons fish sauce
- 200g cooked small school prawns, peeled, tails intact
- 120g cooked blue swimmer crabmeat
- 100g smoked salmon, cut into thin strips
- Juice of 1/2 lemon
- 1 tablespoon chopped dill
- Melba toasts, to serve

Method

Step 1

Chill 4 large martini (or similar) glasses.

Step 2

Soak gelatine leaves in cold water until softened (about 5 minutes).

Step 3

Place wine in a pan over high heat and reduce by half. Squeeze out gelatine and add to pan. Stir until dissolved. Place in measuring jug, add fish sauce and top up with cold water to make 600ml of liquid.

Step 4

Place seafood in a bowl with lemon and dill. Season and stir to combine.

Step 5

Place a small layer of seafood in each glass, cover with a little wine mixture and refrigerate for 15 minutes to set. Repeat twice more, until glasses are full and completely set. Serve with Melba toasts.

THANKYOU

Cue Police Newsletter

The last month or so has been a very busy period in the Cue Shire area with a number of burglary and stealing offences having been committed. Several juveniles were apprehended and charged for a number of these burglary, steal motor vehicle and stealing offences. The juveniles responsible have all now gone to court for the matters.

To coincide with the school holidays there were also some offences in the area for which no persons of interest have been identified. If you do see anyone acting in a suspicious manner, please take whatever details you can and call police on 131 444 or 9963 8800. If you don't get through to Cue Police directly provide the call taker with the details and they will contact us with the information.

I would also strongly ask that if you witness anyone on your property or in your vehicle please call Police. As happened in the recent spate of offences, the offenders were disturbed on a number of occasions but Police were never called. We may have been able to prevent further offences occurring at the time, as was probably the case in this instance. That is what we are here for, so please call 24 / 7 if you see anyone committing an offence. It is far better for the community if offenders can be apprehended before causing hardship to a member of the community.

It can be frustrating to hear that at a certain time a person was caught trying to steal a car but chased off and no report is made to Police until morning. It is even harder to hear this occurred and 30 minutes later someone else has had their house broken into and a vehicle stolen when it could have been prevented by the earlier phone call to 131 444 or 9963 8800.

Home and Property Security

I have mentioned this on two previous occasions, but please lock up your properties and vehicles. A significant number of property thefts occur as a result of a lack of security. An open door or window is a very tempting target for a burglar.

I am happy to attend at a local residence and provide some security advice if required.

ANZAC Day

It was pleasing to such a large turnout for the ANZAC dawn service in town which was run by the Shire. The event was very well run and was one of the best services I have been to over the years.

Traffic Offences

Cue Police will be out actively targeting speeders over the coming month with a focus to some degree on heavy vehicles within the 50km/h zone of the town. I would ask everyone to slow down and arrive safe at their destination.

I also feel that the issue of unsupervised children playing on Great Northern Highway needs to be addressed. Parents please ensure young children are supervised. A recent news story from Mount Magnet highlighted this issue with a number of young children being captured on camera running in front of a road train. I have spoken to a number of parents about this in the town but it appears as though my concerns have fallen on deaf ears. Further action will be taken in the future if this behaviour continues. I could not imagine losing a child in this circumstance and it would be devastating for the community if it were to occur.

Crime Statistics

Search results for CUE between January 2015 and April 2015 inclusive:

Month	Assault	Burglary (Dwelling)	Burglary (Other)	Graffiti	Robbery	Steal Motor Vehicle
January 2015	0	1	0	0	0	0
Totals	0	2	1	0	0	0

It should be noted that the Burglary and Stolen Motor Vehicle are not reflected in these statistics. Four juveniles were charged for those offences. A number of Juvenile Offenders were also charged for 2 of the 3 Burglary listed in the table above. The majority of offenders are not from Cue and are here from other areas so please be vigilant and take note of persons in the area you are not familiar with.

Damage offences still continue to occur and whilst not reported on the above statistics are a problem we are actively addressing. Year on year figures we are down 5.3% on last year which I hope to bring down further. This includes a significant number of disorderly conduct charges which is up nearly 200% on last year, thanks to the no-nonsense approach currently been taken by Cue Police. 10 offenders have now been charged with disorderly conduct since August.

Twitter

Cue Police are now on Twitter. Follow us for regular updates on what is occurring around the area and for any crime trends as they start to occur. It's easier than it looks to get involved and follow us.

Station Works

The work which I am sure most of you have seen being carried out at the Police Station is nearly completed and we will soon be back to having our door open when we are at the station. I apologise for the inconvenience it has caused, but there have been significant safety issues which resulted in the station door being closed far more than I like.

Suspicious Activity

As a reminder, if you see anything suspicious please call 131 444 or contact Cue Police Station directly on 9963 8800. Feel free to call at any time 24 hours a day, 7 days a week. Don't forget though, in an emergency always call 000. If we are not at the station the phones will divert to Geraldton Police Station, please leave them a message and they will then advise us to contact you at the next possible opportunity.

TOURISM SIGNAGE PROJECT

As part of a regional approach to Tourism it has been identified that road directional signage throughout the Murchison is very poor.

To address this issue the Shire of Cue made application for funding through the Mid West Development Commission under the Community Chest Fund which is funded by the State Government's Royalties for Regions Program. The Shire of Cue were awarded $20,000 towards the implementation of this project.

In the first stage of this overall project signs are to be erected at the intersections of:

- Dalgaranga Road and Beringarra Road,
- Dalgaranga Road and Big Bell South Road,
- Big Bell South and Big Bell Coodary Road,
- Beringarra Road and Big Bell / Coodary Road, and
- Big Bell / Coodary Road and Coodardy Noondie Road.

The first intersection is now completed and the remaining intersections will commence very shortly.

Care, Understanding and Excellence

Thank You!

Cue Primary School would like to thank BNM Australia Group and Catalano's for the donation and delivery of the 105m³ of 20mm screened gravel and 8 m³ of screened cream sand.

We have a large area of lawn at the rear of the school that does not get used and costs a small fortune in water and maintenance. For many years we have had a plan and have been budgeting towards upgrading the area with large gravel pebbles and brightly coloured concrete pads for giant chess, draughts and noughts and crosses with a few native plants as a scenic background.

We also wanted a light sand for our early childhood play area for many years and could not justify the expense of having it carted to Cue.

BNM Australia Group and Catalano's came to our rescue and donated the supplies required and cartage of the products saving the school many thousands of dollars which means we can now start the project.

A night with the Mucky Duck Bush Band in Cue.

After some thirty odd years the Mucky Duck Bush Ban made a return to Cue to entertain those in attending the free Community Dinner sponsored by the Shire of Cue and the Cue CRC.

The band had almost all those there up and dancing some very energetic dances to the amusement of all those in attendance. All agreed it was a great night and wished it could be repeated at some future date. It was a joy to see so many people enjoying the night whilst have a lot of laughs..

The Mucky Duck Band has been around for a long time and it is not hard to see why as the music and entertainment was first class.

To the Shire of Cue and the Cue CRC goes our thanks for providing a first class evening of entertainment, food and frivolity. It will be remembered for some time to come.

Midwest Population Health Unit

Mosquito-borne disease warning for the Midwest & Gascoyne

An increase in Ross River Virus cases last month has resulted in the WA Country Health Service (WACHS) warning Midwest residents and visitors to take extra care to avoid mosquito bites.

WACHS Midwest Population Health Unit is urging all residents and visitors to the Midwest & Gascoyne to take extra care to avoid mosquito bites following an increase in the number of cases of Ross River virus (RRV) infections in the region.

WACHS Midwest Public Health Physician Dr Marisa Gilles said 16 RRV notifications were received in April alone, significantly higher than in the same period last year when there were no cases notified.

Dr Gilles said that holiday makers from the Midwest should take extra precautions against mosquito bites when they visit other parts of Western Australia.

"RRV occurs in nature in environmentally-driven cycles between mosquitoes and animals (including humans). It is transmitted only through the bite from a mosquito and cannot be caught from direct contact with another person or animal," Dr Gilles said.

"The illnesses caused by Ross River viruses may include painful joints, aching muscles, lethargy, fever, headache and skin rashes, and symptoms may last from weeks to months.

"Patients are most commonly 20 to 60 years of age, although all age classes can be affected if exposed to mosquito bites.

"People experiencing such symptoms should seek medical attention from their GP or local hospital.

"There are no specific cures or vaccines for RRV so it is very important that people take care to prevent being bitten by mosquitoes.

"Mosquitoes are at their most active at dawn and dusk. To reduce the chances of being bitten, people in mosquito-prone areas should cover up by wearing long, loose-fitting clothing and use insect repellents containing DEET or Picaridin as an active ingredient on exposed areas of skin.

"Householders should ensure that insect screens fitted to doors and windows are in good condition.

"Mosquito numbers can be reduced by removing stagnant water around the home or campsites. Mosquitoes will breed in anything that can hold water including old tyres, unused fish ponds and pot plant holders."

Residents are encouraged to contact the Shire of Cue on 9963 8600 for advice if they are getting bitten near their homes.

ANZAC Service 2015

Cue P.S.

On Friday 24th April Cue P.S. celebrated the Centenary of ANZAC with an afternoon service in the undercover area. It was a time of reflection and remembrance to mark a significant occasion with respect.

Thank you to Mr Graeme Morphet for coming to the service with his wife, Sue to play the Last Post and the Rouse on his bugle.

Thank you to the parents/carers, community members and visitors to Cue (all the way from Kempsey in NSW) who joined us for the service and thank you to the students who helped to lead the service.

Afternoon Tea followed the service. We had ANZAC biscuits for everyone and tea and coffee for the adults.

Lest We Forget

Beringarra – Cue Road

They want too dig up the bitumen road
Then turn it back to gravel.
To repair they say will cost a load,
How will it all unravel?

To dig it up will be a big cost,
And our bitumen road it will be lost!
It's stood up well to excessive rain,
This year we have had more than ever
And the road has still held together.
To dig it up will cause us all pain
What would it have been like if it was all gravel?
No one would have been able to travel.

Even though over 600 people said no!
It was still voted that it has to go.
Are we going back to the dark ages?
No one would have been able to travel.

Big new signs for tourism have been put in,
Do you think that they would want gravel.
To dig it up would be a sin,
When they could have been able to travel,
The Beringarra road on bitumen.
It was a great way to go,
But soon it will be gravel No! No! No!

Most gravel roads take longer to traverse,
The corrugations are such a curse.
More breakdowns of our motor cars,
more time stranded for hours and hours.

Where else would they want to do this?
Surely we can't call it progress!
Other places repair their bitumen roads.
Will Cue turn bitumen roads ——— to gravel
What will the outcome be?
I guess we will have to wait and see.

“Optimistic”
Concerned Ratepayer.

Day Dawn

A town site in the Murchison Goldfields, just 6.6 km from Cue, Day Dawn was originally gazetted as "Bundawadra" in 1894, but was changed to Day Dawn within three months. Gold was discovered here by Ted Hefferman in 1892, and he named his discovery "Day Dawn", after the time of day that he pegged his claim. The area developed rapidly from 1898 when the famous "Great Fingall" mine was established, and the town of Day Dawn boomed. Flooding and other problems closed the mine around World war II, and Day Dawn soon faded away.

The golden crown mine was down the daydawn road and was working in the 1990's that went for a few yrs. and they were going bring the Great Fingal Building into Cue at one stage because of putting the open cut behind it. That as we all know did not happen so at present the beautiful old building has a large hole behind it.

Mrs Jean Pigdon Ross's mother was born there and also lived on Lakeside Station for a while, she was one of the Clarkson's a pioneering family of the area.

A NOTE TO ALL PROSPECTORS & TOURISTS

As the damper weather is starting to settle in please ensure you check the weather forecast before venturing out of town and please, notify someone when you are venturing out so that they can alert authorities if an issue is to arise. As a matter of courtesy please advise the person of your return to avoid any unnecessary work for volunteers.

While Cue is surrounded by a wide spread of empty land and it is fun to venture out, please ensure you have been given permission to prospect certain grounds including local stations. Further information can be found at the Department of Mines & Petroleum website.

Don't forget if you're about to travel out on our gravel roads check out the road conditions by either ringing the Shire Road Report phone line on 9963 8669, visiting the Shire of Cue website at www.cue.wa.gov.au then clicking on 'News' for the latest report or checking out all the road reports on the front window of the shire office. The Dot

Finally someone has cleared this mystery up...

For centuries Hindu women have worn a dot (Tikka) on their foreheads. Most of us have naively thought this was connected with marriage or religion, but the Indian High Commission in Canberra has recently revealed the true story.

When a Hindu woman gets married, she brings a dowry into the union. On her wedding night, the husband scratches off the dot to see whether he has won a:

- A - Taxi licence in Adelaide .
- B - Convenience store in Melbourne .
- C - Service station in Perth .
- D - Kebab shop in Brisbane .
- E - Take away cafe in Sydney .

If there is nothing there, he must stay in India and take a job answering telephones giving technical advice to Telstra customers in Australia .

Siamese Twins

Siamese twins walk into a bar in Australia and park themselves on a bar stool.

One of them says to the bartender, "Don't mind us; we're joined at the hip. I'm John, he's Jim. Two Fosters beers, draft please."

The bartender, feeling slightly awkward, tries to make polite conversation while pouring the beers. "Been on holiday yet, lads?"

"Off to America next month," says John. "We go to America every year, rent a car and drive for miles. Don't we, Jim?" Jim agrees.

"Ah, America!" says the bartender. "Wonderful country... New York, L.A, Vegas..."

"Nah, we don't like that American crap," says John. "Meat pies and Fosters beer, that's us, eh Jim ? And we can't stand the Yanks - they're so arrogant and rude."

"So why keep going to America?" asks the bartender.

"It's the only chance Jim gets to drive."

Those people in town who did not have a prior appointment on Friday 24th April in the evening missed out on a very good show. The “Black Diggers” was evocative, thoughtful and funny also. It was one of the best plays about war-time that I have seen. The few people who did turn up were very impressed and it was good to see two of our councillors there. The play began at 7.30pm and was over by 9.30pm so not too late for a Friday. Sad that you missed it xo

A Note from a Mother

I gave birth to you but you came with no instructions.
All I knew was that I loved you long before I saw you.

I know I made some mistakes and I am sorry, but I was doing the best I could with what I knew.

Everything I did for you, I did from love. You are my child, my life, and my dreams for tomorrow. I will always love you and there is nothing that could ever destroy my love for you.

David Avocado Wolfe

You will need:

Plain bath salts (like Epsom salts) Essential oil Powder or paste food colouring (not liquid) Glass jar Pretty fabric Ribbon

Instructions:

Put some of the plain bath salts into an old bowl. Put in a tiny amount of essential oil (about 2 drops for every cup of salts) and a tiny amount of food colouring. Stir well with an old wooden spoon until all of the salts absorb the colour. Repeat with as many different colours as you like.

Carefully pour the salts into a clean jar (we layered different colours).

Cut a square of fabric to fit over the lid of the jar, tie in place with some pretty ribbon.

Old Fashioned Fresh Strawberry Lemonade Cake

Ingredients

- 3/4 cup butter, softened
- 1 3/4 cups sugar
- 2 eggs
- 3 Tbsp fresh lemon juice
- 2 1/4 cups all-purpose flour
- 1 tsp baking powder
- 1/2 tsp baking soda
- 2 cups fresh Florida strawberry puree
- 1/2 cup whole buttermilk

Method

Grease & flour 3 (8-inch) round cake pans

Beat the butter & the sugar with an electric stand mixer until light & air. Add the eggs & lemon juice & mix until well blended (stop the mixer on occasion & scrape the sides of the bowl with a rubber spatula). Whisk together the flour, baking powder & soda in a small bowl. Add to the butter mixture alternately with the strawberry puree & the buttermilk, blending on low speed just until the ingredients are combined.

Portion & spread the batter evenly between the pans. Drop each pan about an inch from the counter surface 3 times to settle the leavening (this will ensure an even rise in the oven).

Bake at 350°F for 21 to 23 minutes or until a wooden pick tests clean. Cool on a wire rack 10 minutes. Remove cake layers from the pans & cool completely.

Wrap each cake layer separately in plastic wrap. Freeze 4 hours or overnight.

Strawberry Lemonade Buttercream

- 1 cup butter, softened
 - 2 tsp fresh lemon zest
 - 8 tsp fresh lemon juice
- 2 (16-oz) boxes powdered sugar

Put together to your own liking

Monkey tail sandwiches (Cream cheese, carrot and sultana)

- Ingredients
- 2 slices from 1 loaf of white bread, cut lengthways
- 2 tablespoons spreadable cream cheese
- 1 medium carrot, peeled, grated
- 2 tablespoons sultanas

Step 1

Using a serrated knife, remove crust from bread. Using a rolling pin, flatten each slice.

Step 2

Spread 2 slices of bread with cream cheese. Top with carrot. Sprinkle with sultanas. Starting from short end, roll up bread tightly to enclose filling. Cut each roll into 4 slices.

Step 3

Place sandwiches, cut-side up, on a large plate. Serve.

Cheese and vegie skewers with tzatziki

Ingredients

cheddar, cut into 2cm pieces, red capsicum, coarsely chopped
cucumber, sliced

Method

Thread cheddar, red capsicum and cucumber onto short bamboo skewers. Serve with tzatziki or mayonnaise for dipping.
