Editors Report

Hello good people of Cue

Winter is with us once again and here's hoping it might bring us a bit of much needed rain, it sure does seem to have been a long time between showers. Only another couple of weeks to go now and we will experience the day with the shortest amount of daylight in it, and once again they will begin to get longer, meaning, it won't be long till summers here again.

Apparently the satirical maths page in last month's edition of "THE DRYBLOWER" may have been found to be offensive to some readers. This is proof in itself that everybody's sense of humour is a little different to that of others. I would suggest that in a little village like ours with many various demo graphs within it, the chances of pleasing everybody all the time, are slimmer than marrying a virgin in Tasmania. What I found to be a little interesting is that someone thought it to be their civic duty to go about having this page ripped out!! I understand and accept that people find things offensive, when I read a newspaper there are certain journalists columns I will not read, I just turn the page, that's the choice we all have but when that choice is taken away from people I'm sure that could be seen as being even more offensive.

Please also take note that if someone wishes to lodge a complaint in regards to "THE DRY-BLOWER" they should be directed to myself or can be forwarded to Ruth at the CRC. It is with the utmost respect and appreciation that we recognize the generous funding contribution offered by the Shire of Cue for the production of this publication, however, that is where their involvement ends. You don't go looking for a Mr Whippy van if you get a flat tyre so why go to the CEO with your complaints??

I had the pleasure of meeting the new owners of "THE QUEEN" briefly last week and hope everyone finds it within themselves to make "DARRELL & SAL" feel most welcome in their new castle in our wonderful town. It is with great anticipation we wait to see what direction their business plans take and look forward to what benefits will come with that for us all. A fresh breath of enthusiasm wouldn't hurt at all. Speaking of which what a wonderful display the Cue seniors have made in their new shop. It is fantastic to see people being able to stop and gather in the main street again, well done to those involved.

POLICE BEAT

Traffic

With winter fast approaching it's a timely reminder to check the serviceability of your vehicles, especially your tires. The last thing you want is for us to perform these checks on your behalf and have us discover your vehicle is no longer roadworthy. We will be conducting numerous vehicle safety compliance checks over the coming months, as the serviceability of your vehicle affects all road users.

During the month of May, Cue Police seized a number of vehicles. On a recent trip to Geraldton we stopped a motorcycle travelling at 134 in a 80 zone. His bike was seized for 28 days and he has been summonsed for Reckless Driving.

On Saturday the 20 May Cue Police were assisting in Meekatharra and stopped a vehicle for a Random Breath Test. The driver had never held a licence and was disqualified from obtaining a licence. As a result the vehicle was seized for 28 days and the driver was summonsed for numerous driving offences.

Crime

On 16 April, Cue Police responded to a report of a domestic violence incident. As a result of inquiries a male person from Meekatharra was charged with 2 counts of breaching a Violence Restraining Order, Criminal Damage and Threats to Kill. His bail was refused and he was later remanded in custody by the Magistrate to re-appear at a later date.

Community Policing

Unfortunately being a 3 person station we are unable to be open and available 24/7. We do however work a variety of shifts and are happy to assist with questions or queries outside of hours where we are not officially on-duty. What we do not expect however is for people to attend our private residence for work related issues if we are not on duty. We all like to have some private time and space so please respect the boundaries.

From the CEO desk

Welcome to tourists travellers and prospectors to Cue. We hope you enjoy your time here and visit again in the future.

It was a busy start to the month of May with preparations for a well-attended Cue Parliament with around 65 attendees representing State Government and Local Government from around the State. The two day event started with the WA Local Government Association (WALGA) Zone Forum held in Mt Magnet, followed by the Murchison Country Zone Meeting held in the Cue Shire Hall. A wonderful dinner was held at the Queen of the Murchison which provided an ideal setting for Murchison representatives to discuss issues and share ideas. The State Council Meeting was held in Meekatharra the following day providing an opportunity for attendees to experience part of the Murchison region.

Following Cue Parliament, Rob Madson has taken some well-earned leave to catch up with family and friends. During his time away Rob has also attended the State Heritage and History Forum in Perth and the LG Professionals Australia National Congress Conference. Rob is expected to be back in the office from Wednesday 7 June.

The Kookoo Kookaburra show presented by Country arts WA was hosted at the Cue Shire Hall on 16 May. The event included a workshop at the school and had attendance by twenty five students with eleven students from Mount Magnet.

The Cue Oasis is operational and attracting a growing number of travellers who are stopping to utilise the facilities. The addition of signage and line marking are being finalised which will complete this project.

The Town Hall landscaping and bowling green works has commenced with the retaining wall for the green well on its way. A new large screen television has been purchased for the Shire Hall which will be used for future community events.

Construction of the redevelopment of the Old Post Office building into the new Community and visitor Centre has commenced with contractors now onsite and asbestos removal from the building underway. Temporary fencing is in place to mark the site as a construction area and entry to the site must be authorised by the site supervisor. The new facility is expected to be completed in October with the Community Resource Centre relocating from Robinson Street and the Shire Library relocating from the Shire Administration building to the redeveloped premises.

The market day held on Sunday 28 May had a great turn out with an increase in stall holders and patrons. It is hoped that the growing numbers will continue with future market days.

A Special Meeting of Council will be held on Tuesday 13 June 2017. The purpose of the meeting is to consider advertising for the Shire of Cue's intention to levy differential rates. The next ordinary meeting of Council will be held on Tuesday 20 June 2017, commencing at 6.30pm. Both of these meeting will be held in the Shire of Cue Council chambers.

If you have any queries regarding these or any other Shire related matters, please contact the Shire on 9963 8600 or drop into the Shire office.

Richard Towell
Acting Chief Executive Officer, Shire of Cue

New Management at Queen of the Murchison B&B

Welcome to Joyce and Daryl Penny

On 1st June, Daryl and Joyce Penny took over the Queen of the Murchison. Chas and Carla Neilson had spent ten and a half years as owners and thoroughly enjoyed their time in Cue.

Daryl is a country boy, born and bred and comes from a farming family at west Popanyinning where he grew grain and Marino sheep. His two sons now own and manage those farms and between them have seven children all school age. Daryl's daughter lives in Dampier where she runs the burger bus and looks after her two children. After farming for over 40 years, Daryl got a hankering to go north and buy a cattle station. After two years of looking at the Territory, Kimberley's and the Pilbara, he finally decided on Emu Creek Cattle Station where he and Joyce stayed for seven and a half years. That was sold in February this year, so without thought of retiring, he and Joyce decided to look for a people orientated business somewhere way out of and north of Perth. Queen of the Murchison was the perfect answer.

Joyce has a back ground of marketing and developing shopping centres and has spent time in Perth, Melbourne, Sydney, Singapore, Malaysia and the Philippines. After returning to Australia Joyce met Daryl and became a farmer's wife. This led to her writing a book, "Everything a Woman Needs to Know Before She Marries a Farmer." This has been published and when they unpack copies will be available from the Queen of the Murchison.

Joyce has two sons and three granddaughters and is interested in history knitting and dolls/dollhouses.

Daryl and Joyce intend to continue the fine work that Chas and Carla in operating this business as a guest house but they want to add something different for Cue residents by opening a café.

Excitement seems to be running high about the prospect of something new in town so they hope they won't be disappointed with what they will offer. Machinery needs to be plumbed in and some refrigeration and electrical work is required, so the café may take a few weeks to open.

Daryl and Joyce feel very welcome so far and look forward to getting to know our neighbours and becoming true locals.

Catania highlights the hypocrisy of a post-election Labor Party

Nationals WA Member for North West Central Vince Catania said today that the recent comments by Treasurer Ben Wyatt highlight the hypocrisy of WA Labor and the lies that they peddled to get themselves elected.

Mr Catania's comments come after the recent admission by the Treasurer that he is now considering adopting the Nationals WA plan to require BHP and Rio Tinto to pay a greater contribution to the state to help fix the budget black hole that WA Labor have created.

Mr Catania said "The Nationals have again shown that we are the only Party with any integrity because at the recent state election we put our proposal to the voters to fix the State's structural deficit by amending the outdated 25 cents per tonne Special Lease Rental Fee that both BHP and Rio Tinto pay and increase it to $5 per tonne."

"We were prepared to lose skin and risked our political future to be open and honest with the people of WA, whereas WA Labor just lied to get themselves elected to government, knowing full well that they would ditch their promises."

In Saturdays West Australian Mr Wyatt reinforced his position that he liked the idea of supporting the plan of the Nationals WA to require BHP and Rio Tinto to pay more saying "I will be frank with members, I like it and I have sought some advice on it".

Mr Catania said "Now we see WA Labor back flipping on every commitment they made at the election. They are proposing massive increase in household charges when they said they wouldn't. They are introducing new taxes on investment properties when they said they wouldn't. They are making enormous cuts to the public service at a time when many can least afford it and now they are going to adopt the Nationals WA plan to fix the budget after criticising the plan the whole way through the election."

Nationals MP's having been pushing the new government to pursue their alternative revenue proposal and to have the Federal Treasurer Scott Morrison quarantine it from the view of the Commonwealth Grants Commission ensuring that it is exempt from the calculations for the distribution of the GST.

Big numbers of first-time prospectors spark safety call

A cooler than usual summer has created an early start to Western Australia's prospecting season and a record number of treasure hunters in the field, prompting a safety warning from the Department of Mines and Petroleum (DMP).

"We usually run a safety campaign at this time of year, but this year we really need to get our message out there to what appears to be record number of first-time prospectors," DMP Executive Director Dr Ivor Roberts said.

"Prospecting is fun for young and old, but people need to be aware of the dangers that claimed the life of a prospector only a few years ago."

Dr Roberts said that nearly 1000 Miner's Rights had been issued since the start of the year, with almost 600 issued since 1 March.

"That means a lot of first-time prospectors will be heading out into regional WA and exposing themselves to the dangers of going bush," he said.

"We are telling people to obey what we call the Seven Golden Rules for prospecting and the number one rule is to put safety first.

"The department is also encouraging prospectors to carry Personal Locator Beacons (PLBs) when prospecting in remote areas."

The device, which can be purchased from most outdoor stores, is considered by search and rescue organisations to be ideal for use in remote areas as it does not rely on telecommunication networks to submit a signal.

"PLBs are the best way of avoiding the sometimes tragic results of getting lost in the Goldfields and the outback," Dr Roberts said.

"If you're not carrying a beacon, you're not taking enough responsibility for your life and it doesn't matter how much gold you find, if you get lost, you risk losing your life."

The Seven Golden Rules for prospecting campaign will target tourist bureaus, libraries, caravan parks and DMP offices with posters, brochures and booklets.

For more information about prospecting, please visit your nearest Mining Registrar's office to obtain a copy of Prospecting in Western Australia or download it from www.dmp.wa.gov.au/prospectingwa

Fact file:

- A Miner's Right is the most common prospecting permit used by tourists visiting Western Australia and allows holders to prospect on Crown Land with hand-held tools, such as a metal detector, and to take and keep samples or specimens up to 20 kilograms.

- The first Seven Golden Rules prospecting campaign in 2014 was in response to a recommendation by the State Coroner for prospectors to carry a Personal Locator Beacon (PLBs) following the death of a prospector.
- In 2012, lost prospector Michael Graham sparked a 15-day search involving aircraft, motorbikes, horses and expert trackers covering 1500 square kilometres. The body of the 46-year-old father-of-two was never found.
- The Coroner's Court was told that of the nine prospectors who had been reported missing that year, only one had been carrying a PLB and was found within four hours.
- Searches for missing prospectors average 11.3 hours but many last one or two days, while aircraft searches cost up to $5000 per hour

The Seven Golden Rules of Prospecting

1. Put safety first
  - Make sure you have enough water, fuel, maps, first aid supplies.
  - Give serious consideration to taking some form of telecommunications and a global positioning system to fix locations, and a Personal Locator Beacon (PLB) – it may turn out to be your most important safety device.
2. Obtain a Miner's Right permit
when prospecting on vacant Crown land ($25 from any Mining Registrar's office).
3. Obtain a 40E permit
before prospecting within an exploration tenement (if you don't have written permission from the tenement holder),
4. Get written permission from the tenement holder when prospecting on:
  - a mining lease
  - an exploration licence (if you don't have a 40E permit)
  - a prospecting licence
5. Comply with all legal requirements
when prospecting on a pastoral lease. You cannot prospect within 100 metres of any occupied building or within 400 metres of any livestock watering point
6. Show respect when on Crown land
because it is used or set aside for many purposes.
7. Fill any holes
that you dug and repair ground that has been disturbed.

Mid West Aboriginal business leaders receive praise

A GROUP of Mid West Aboriginal business leaders and entrepreneurs have been praised for their efforts and passion at a special graduation ceremony in Geraldton today. (May 26, 2017)

The six leaders were praised for their work in the Mid West after receiving their graduation certificates at the closing event of the West Australian Aboriginal Leadership Program held at the African Reef in Geraldton.

The ceremony, attended by a host of dignitaries from the Mid West, heard how the inaugural program had delivered new skills, confidence and motivation to the business leaders.

Indigenous Professional Services Director and Program Leader Kristal Kinsela congratulated the leaders and graduates on their achievements.

"It's quite an emotional day, seeing how close the group have become," Ms Kinsela said.

"It's been a wonderful journey for these business leaders over the past few months. The community can rightly be proud of their achievements."

Ms Kinsela is the NSW Aboriginal Woman of the Year, and a passionate advocate for Indigenous business growth. She has advised the Australian Government on policies to foster social inclusion and Indigenous economic independence.

Ms Kinsela said the WAALP program would provide long-lasting benefits to Indigenous businesses in Western Australia, and to the wider community.

"WAALP provides a proven and successful model for supporting Indigenous business growth in other regions within WA, and perhaps even throughout Australia," Ms Kinsela said.

The WAALP program comprised four two-day sessions, with participants led through a range of activities designed to empower Aboriginal people to be resilient and capable business leaders, entrepreneurs and innovators who can support the development of emerging and existing local Aboriginal businesses.

It started in March 2017, and was hosted in key Midwest towns of Morowa, Geraldton and Meekatharra

Indigenous Professional Services (IPS), a majority Indigenous owned business, has created the program for the Department of Regional Development (DRD). WAALP is one stream of a broader Royalties for Regions funded Aboriginal Governance and Leadership Development Program (AGLDP) aiming to encourage and provide opportunities for Aboriginal people to increase their participation in the State's economy.

Imagine there is a bank account that credits your account each morning with $86,400. It carries over no balance from day to day. Every evening the bank deletes whatever part of the balance you failed to use during the day. What would you do? Draw out every cent, of course? Each of us has such a bank. It's name is TIME. Every morning, it credits you with 86,400 seconds. Every night it writes off as lost, whatever of this you have failed to invest to a good purpose. It carries over no balance. It allows no over draft. Each day it opens a new account for you. Each night it burns the remains of the day. If you fail to use the day's deposits, the loss is yours. There is no drawing against "tomorrow." You must live in the present on today's deposits. Invest it so as to get from it the utmost in health, happiness and success! The clock is running!! Make the most of today.
